2022 GRAFFITI INVITATIONAL

Cindy Sielski Memorial Award

Cindy Sielski passed away on November 27, 2013. Cindy was a nationally ranked judge, mother and wife. Cindy was a judge for our event for over 15 years, always happy to help the gymnasts with a smile on her face. I first met Cindy when I was 10, years before I even thought of coaching gymnastics. Each time that I saw her at the competitions, especially when I was starting, she always smiled and asked how I was doing. She helped me learn the in and outs of competitive gymnastics, And for that I will always be thankful.

In Cindy's honor we are going to award a gymnast this year with a small scholarship to continue her gymnastics training. It will go to a gymnast who may not be the star on her team, but who demonstrates great sportsmanship and attitude. The gymnast does not need to be a senior, she may use the funds for her club team. We will be picking gymnasts for the Xcel session this year.

Don Beecher

(Meet Director)

A $500 scholarship will be awarded to a deserving gymnast from the Xcel sessions. This gymnast will not be the best gymnast, the most talented, but the one who rises above hardships to make it to practice and shows a love for the sport and a love for their gym and teammates. Coaches will submit a short resume for one of their gymnasts who feel deserving and Flips Gymnastics & Sport staff and the judges will pick a winner during their competition. During 2020 we awarded $1,500 in scholarships.
